COOPER IS AFTER YANG

Wants Facts as to Consul's Last Move.

PROCLAMATION IS SAID TO BE FALSE

Acting Governor Will Call Attention of Washington to Chinese Official's Actions.

The matter of the Chinese immigration funds will be fought out at Washington fully. The protest of Chinese Consul Yang Wei Pin against the removal of the funds from bank to the treasury was sent forward to the Chinese Minister by the past mail, and now the Acting Governor will take a hand in furnishing Washington with information. Yang, after his protest, issued a proclamation, directed to all Chinese who are interested in the fund, advising a meeting to decide upon the lines of action. This meeting has not yet been called and there is still no action in sight by the workmen whose money is on deposit to their call.

Acting Governor Cooper has asked the High Sheriff to procure one of the alleged proclamations issued by Yang and Goo, and should a translation of the document as it has been spread broadcast be the same as that which was published during this week, the entire matter will be submitted to Washington. The document as translated is full of incorrect statements. There is alleged to have been a contract for the depositing of the money collected from the workmen in the First National Bank, but that institution was not in existence in 1895, nor can it claim to be the heir to the Postal Savings Bank. It was in the latter institution that the funds were placed and kept so long as it was in operation.

The statement says that the money was at interest, which was the case so long as the money was in the hands of the Government, but now that it is held in the bank there is no interest paid upon it, and neither the Territorial treasury nor the Chinese are gainers by that phase of the transaction. While the funds were in the Postal Bank they were used by the Government as it saw fit, its credit being behind the bank's deposits. In the statement of the case by the Consul there is stress laid upon the alleged danger that the workers may not get their money, but the most strength is put on the statements which lead to the belief that since the contract labor laws have been abolished and the registration of the Chinese made, the men who paid the money into the treasury of the Territory through the immigration bureau have a claim upon it at once, regardless of the fact that they are not intending to return to their homes. This view of the case is held by many lawyers, but it was thoroughly investigated by the Territorial officers before they came to the conclusion that there was nothing in the way of taking the money over into the treasury, which is responsible for its repayment, and would so be if through any accident there was any breaking into the fund. The action of the Consul is thought to have been taken at the instigation of attorneys who are anxious to secure the fighting of a case for the Chinese.
